GABBY'S DREAM •

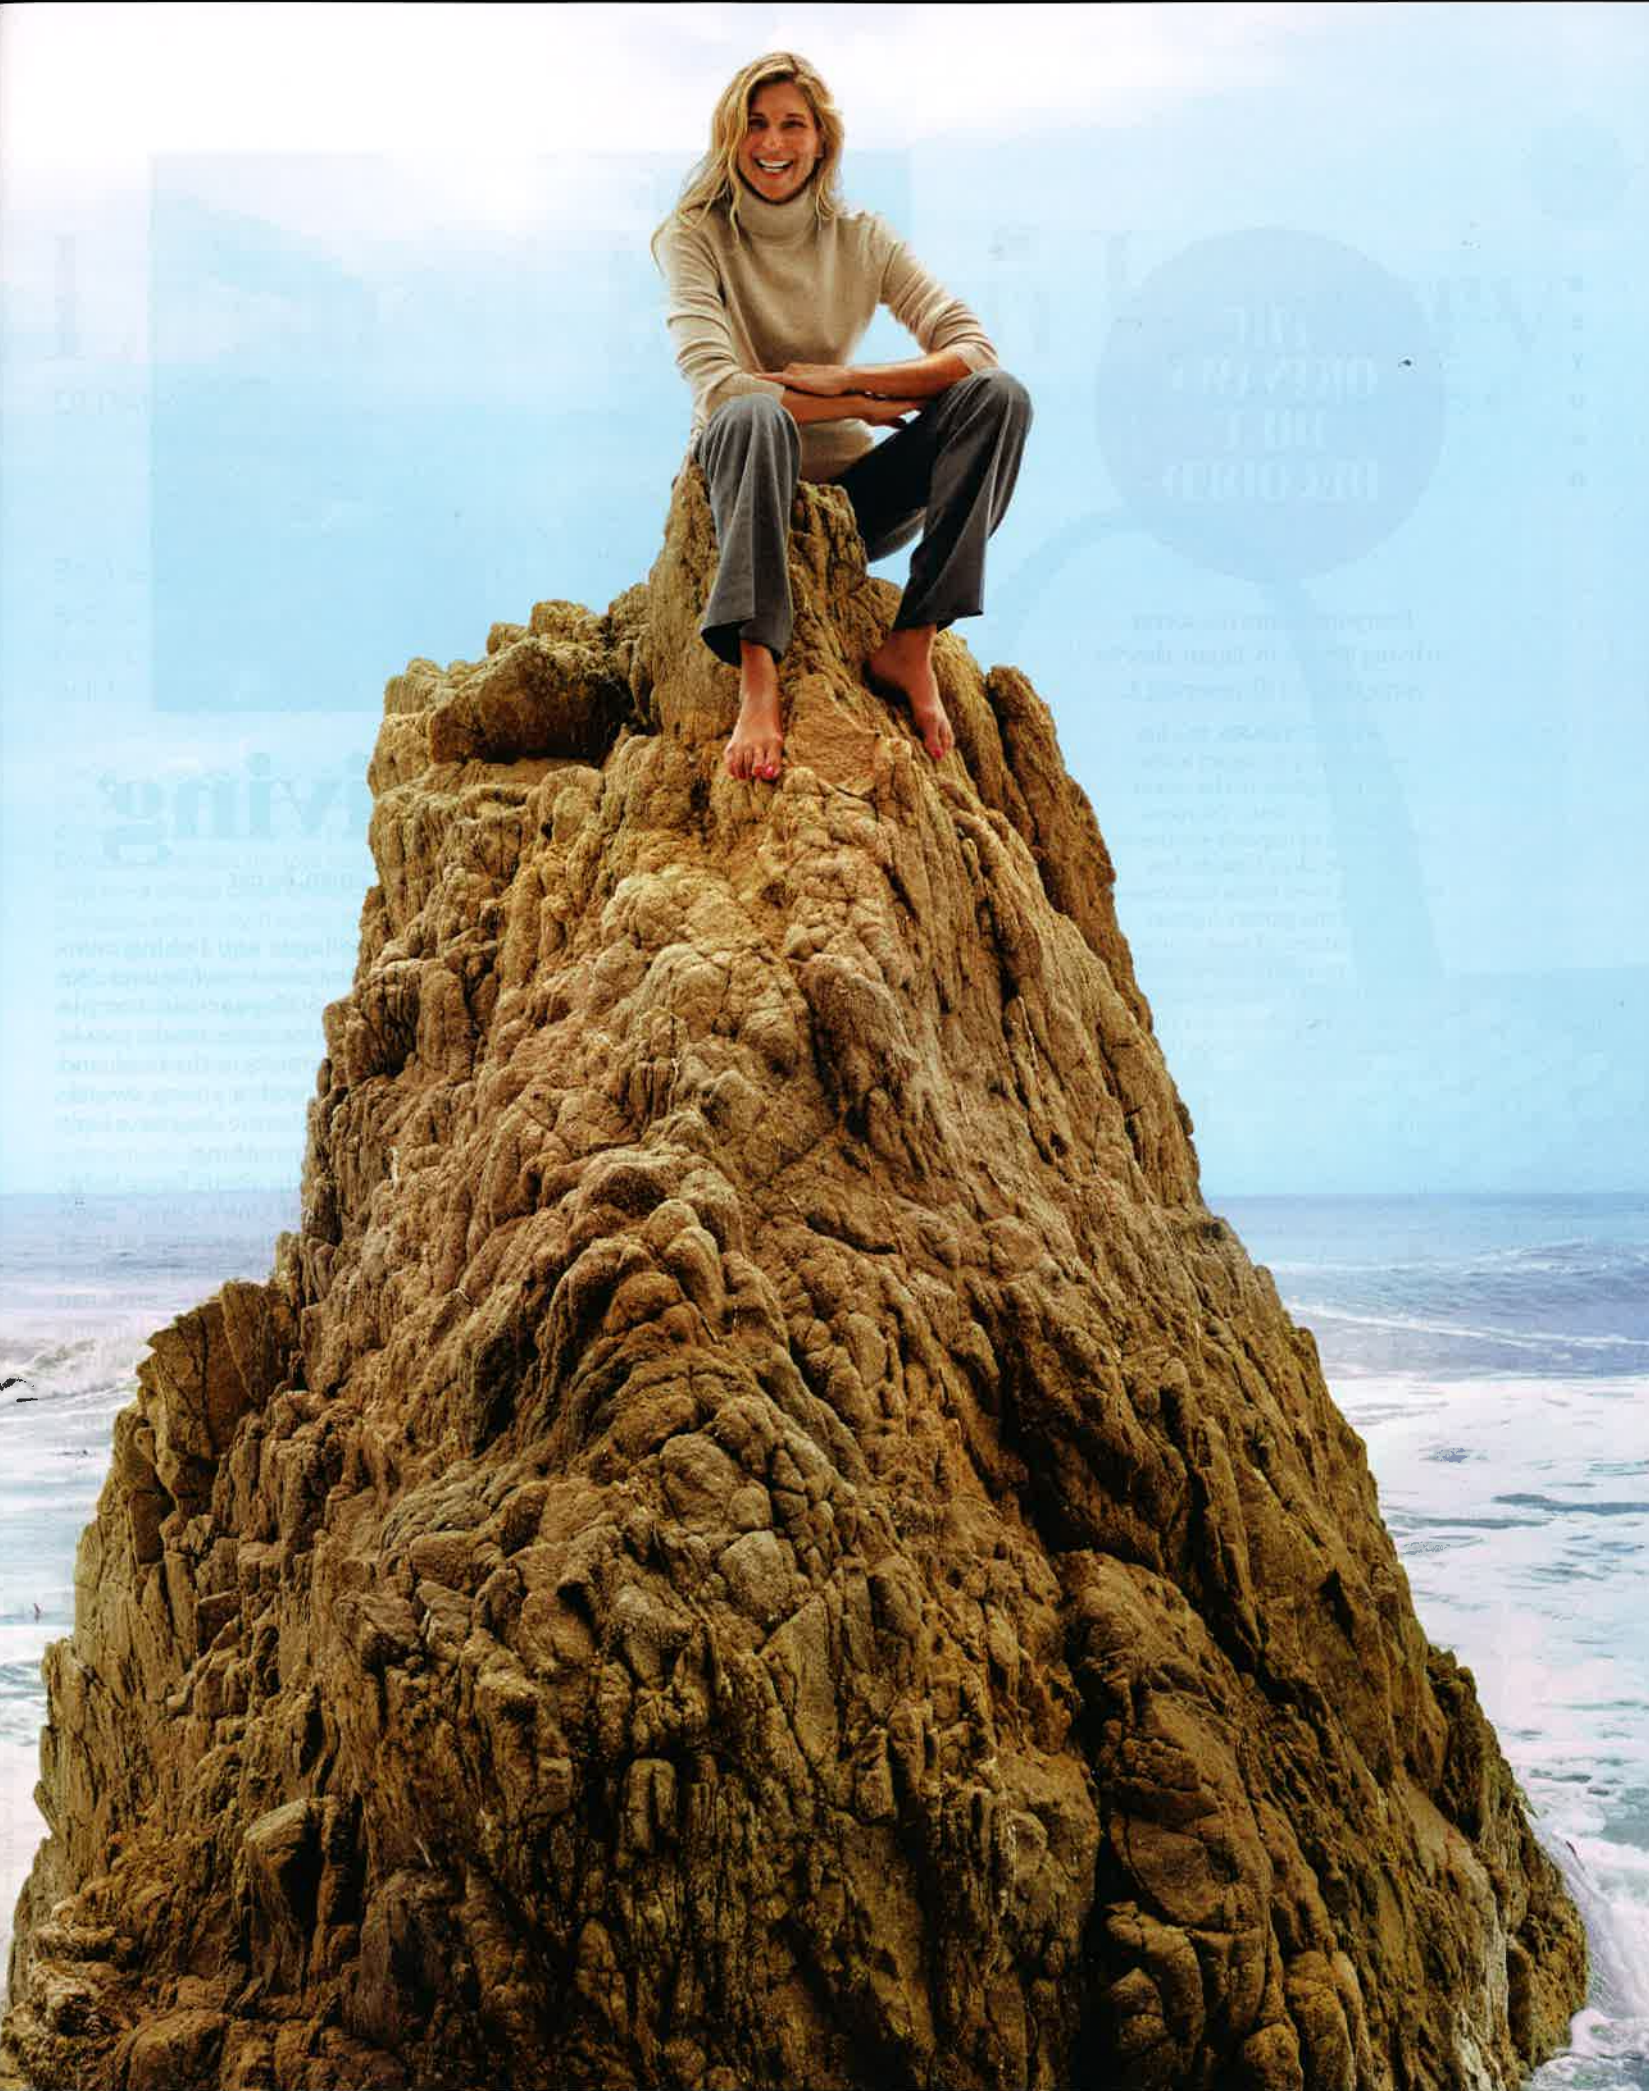

ATHLETE, MODEL, MOTHER, AUTHOR, AND FITNESS GURU
GABRIELLE REECE RETURNED TO THE STATE OF HER BIRTH TO REALIZE A DREAM: RAISING AN ACTIVE FAMILY IN A BREATHTAKINGLY BEAUTIFUL PLACE.

"LIVING HERE IN MALIBU IS REALLY A TREAT FOR me and my family," says Gabby. "You have all these mountains all around and some of the best trails for mountain biking or hiking right on the ocean and only 30 minutes from Los Angeles. It's high-end luxury, but in a casual way." Among her favorite nearby getaways are the Cal-a-Vie Health Spa in Vista, near San Diego, Bacara Resort & Spa in Santa Barbara and Spa Montage in Laguna Beach. "It's all about luxury," she says,

"but also sending people home just a little bit better than when they arrived."

Her family enjoys travel all over the state, from the San Diego Zoo Safari Park to Yosemite National Park to Mammoth Mountain, where natural beauty meets expert recreational instruction. "You have the best of the best experience, yet with a California attitude, which is inviting, warm and unpretentious. It makes you feel like, 'Yes, I can get involved. I can do that.'"
